FISH FRY

Ahhh, the sacred joys of fishing! Did you know there are as many patron saints of fishing as there are excuses for a catchless day? While our saints do range from Andrew to Zeno, our favorite is St. Jude, patron saint of hopeless causes, as seen here fishing with Moses. "Catch-as-catch-can" never rang so true! An abundance of fresh catch is promised when you Eat at Deke's on October 20th at St. Paul's Fish Fry. Your effortless catch will be professionally prepared by Tastefully British, enthusiastically served by our Confirmation candidates, and boisterously enjoyed in the festive company we've come to know as St. Paul's parish! Doors will open at 5:30 and serving will begin at 6:00 when we ask that you "Sit down. You're rocking the boat." Our evening will include make-your-own-sundae-bar!! Let the messy begin! Don't be fishless, feckless or foolish! Buy your tickets in DJH after all the masses this weekend. $15 per person $14 seniors (65+) and $10 for kids 10 & younger. Now you're off the hook both for catching and cooking this scrumptious fish fry!
